An ACT to streighten and amend the road leading from Leonard-town, in Saint-Mary's county, to Newport, in Charles county.

Passed 31st of Dec. 1801.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Saint-Mary's and Charles counties, that from a variety of natural and accidental causes the road leading from Leonard-town, in Saint-Mary's county, to Newport, in Charles county, has become very inconvenient, hazardous, and unsafe for travellers, and they have prayed that commissioners may be appointed to streighten and amend the same; and it appearing reasonable and proper that the said difficulties, as far as is practicable, should be removed,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Philip Key, Luke White Barber, Clement Briscoe, Bennet Walker and William Mills, of Saint-Mary's county, and Henry Cooksey, Benjamin Douglass, Walter Dyson and Samuel Emory, of Charles county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, to examine the road leading from Leonard-town, in Saint-Mary's county, Commissioners appointed, &c.
